Section 1

Read the text and answer the questions.

THIS WEEK'S STAR LETTER IS FROM HUDA IN AMMAN.

SHE HAS WON THE 1ST PRIZE!

I work as a sales assistant in a women's clothing shop in Amman. The shop specialises in women's clothes made in Jordan.

From the late 20th century onwards, women started to wear clothes like trousers, suits and long-sleeved blouses. Women my age usually wear a traditional embroidered thobe for more special occasions. But in my opinion, the most important thing to know about style is that it's like a wheel. It turns round and round. The looks of the past that nobody wears anymore often become the popular choices of the future.

In the past, women wore long dresses all the time. Today I'm wearing a beautiful full-length dress. It isn't new. My mum bought it 30 years ago!
