Unit One: Gen Alpha

Part 1

Read and Comprehension

The Gen Z-Alpha Bridge: How Digital Trends Unite Young Generations

Generation Z and Generation Alpha are two young generations in the world today. Gen Z includes people born between 1997 and 2012. Gen Alpha includes children born from 2010 till now. Even though they are different ages, they have some important things in common – they are growing up in a digital world.

Both generations use smartphones, tablets, and computers every day. They like watching videos on YouTube, using apps, and playing online games. Social media and online games help them connect, learn, and have fun with others – even if they live far apart.

Sample Blog Writing:

A Day in the Life of a Gen Alpha Teen

Hello! I'm a Gen Alpha teen and I'm writing about my typical day. Right now, I'm using my smartphone to check social media. I'm following the latest trends and sending emojis to my friends.

At the moment, I'm balancing my screen time with other activities. I'm playing online games but I'm also doing my homework. My generation is always connected digitally.

I'm learning to have good digital habits. I'm limiting my screen time and spending time with family too. Being a digital native is fun, but balance is important!

Sample Short Paragraph:

I am using technology every day. Right now, I am checking social media trends on my smartphone. I am sending emojis to my friends and trying to balance my screen time with studying.
