Q 1

Read the text and answer the questions

Which shop will you go to when you need something quickly, or when you want to spend your money? Do you have to go to a supermarket or a shopping centre? Or will you go to a corner shop, where it's quick and easy to get what you need? Most corner shops sell sweets, food, drinks, newspapers and magazines. In the UK, corner shops also sell stamps, cleaning products and stationery, such as pens and greetings cards. In Australia, a traditional corner shop is called a milk bar. In New Zealand, it's called a dairy. In the past, milk bars and dairies sold a lot of milk and ice cream, and some were also cafés where you could eat and drink. Now they usually sell a lot of different foods and drinks, as well as milk and ice cream.

A. Multiple Choice (Choose the correct answer)

Answer:

Subject: Party Invitation!

Hi [Friend's Name],

I hope you're doing well! I'm writing to invite you to a birthday party I'm having next week.

It will be at my house on Saturday, the 15th, starting at 7 PM. I've invited a few other close friends from our class. We'll have some pizza and snacks, and I'll be making my famous chocolate cake! We can just relax, listen to music, and chat.

It would be great to have you there! Please let me know by Wednesday if you can make it so I can plan the food.

Looking forward to hearing from you!

Best,

[Your Name]
