First Preparatory Grade

Second Term – April Units (Units 10 & 11) – Version A

Time: One hour and a half | Total Score: 50 Marks

Section One – Reading Comprehension

Read the following text carefully, then answer the questions:

Omar is a fourteen-year-old student who believes that helping others doesn't require big actions. Last summer, he noticed that many elderly people in his neighborhood felt lonely. He decided to create colorful flyers and shared them around the neighborhood. The flyers invited people to join a "Community Kindness Day" at the local park. On that day, Omar and a group of volunteers cleaned the park, planted flowers, and prepared small welcome cards for visitors. They greeted everyone warmly and spent time listening to the elderly. Omar realized that even small actions, like picking up trash or offering a smile, can bring happiness and comfort to others. He felt proud because his small effort made a huge difference.

A) Complete the Blanks

Second Term – April Units (Units 10 & 11) – Version B

Time: One hour and a half | Total Score: 50 Marks

Section One – Reading Comprehension

Read the following text carefully, then answer the questions:

The camel is one of the most amazing animals living in the vast desert. It has adapted perfectly to survive under the hottest weather. Its long legs help it walk easily across the endless sand dunes. Unlike other animals, the camel can stay hydrated for many days. Its hump stores fat, not water, and its thick eyelashes protect it from blowing sand. The camel is often called "the ship of the desert" because it is very strong and can carry heavy loads for long distances. These unique features make the camel a fascinating creature. We must protect desert animals like the camel because they are an important part of our natural heritage.

A) Choose the correct answer from a, b, c, or d

1. The camel is called "the ship of the desert" because it is _____.
a. fast b. strong and carries heavy loads c. beautiful d. rare
2. What does the camel store in its hump?
a. water b. food c. fat d. sand
3. The thick eyelashes of the camel protect its eyes from _____.
a. the sun b. blowing sand c. other animals d. rain
4. The word "hydrated" in the text means _____.
a. having enough water b. being tired c. eating food d. sleeping well
